Subject: Disavowing the hate

We're sure you heard the news. This past weekend, the home of a supporter and their "Gottheimer for Congress" yard sign were graffitied with swastikas and racist language.

At a time when a hate crime rocks a community, everyone must come together. Unfortunately, John McCann exploited the event for political purposes, blaming the Democrats instead of doing the right thing and decrying white supremacists and anti-Semitism.

John McCann has shown time and time again that he's not qualified to represent our district or our Jersey Values. This shocking response to a flagrant hate crime is the final straw.

New Jersey cannot afford to have a tax hiker and white supremacist sympathizer representing us. Period. We must do everything possible to defeat McCann. The first step? Making sure we hit our end-of-quarter goal. Donate now.

Even Rep. Steven Stivers, the chairman of the National Republican Campaign Committee, condemned John McCann for his offensive comments.

"I don't think either one of those statements is appropriate or correct. I don't think racism or hate has any place in our politics, and we need to disavow it at every turn."

Let's disavow racism and anti-Semitism in our community by making sure John McCann doesn't get elected this November. Chip in to our third-quarter goal now.
