Hate Has No Home Here

Join Patrick J. Kennedy in Brigantine, New Jersey on Thursday, December 1 for a critical anti-hate event. In recent months Brigantine and the larger U.S. community have been touched by dangerous antisemitism. We have a duty to disavow this hate publicly, consistently, and wholeheartedly. Read more about the anti-semitism Brigantine faced this summer here.

If you are unable to attend the event or are inspired by the event's programming, please consider donating to Coalition for a Safer Web, a non-profit dedicated to removing extremist content from social media platforms.

Information about our speaker, Former Ambassador Marc Ginsberg

In 1994, President Bill Clinton appointed Ginsberg as Ambassador to Morocco making Ginsberg the first Jewish American to be appointed as an ambassador to a country in the Arab world. Ambassador Ginsberg was knighted by the King Hassan II—the first U.S. envoy accorded this honor.

Ginsberg served as the U.S. Special Coordinator for Mediterranean Trade, investment and Security Affairs. He was the CEO of the One Voice Movement Foundation and Chief Executive officer of Peaceworks, LLC. Ginsberg served as an adviser to Middle East and European governments and now serves as the founder and president of the Coalition for a Safer Web, a cyber counterterrorism and anti-extremism non-profit organization whose mission is to prevent social media platforms from serving as pathways for extremists and terrorists to plot, incite, and execute domestic and foreign acts of violence. The Coalition for a Safer Web currently advises Congress, the Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Defense, and the National Security Council on social media-based extremist incitement and operational planning, as well as private industry and civil society organizations.

Expected handouts at the event include...
